The attached three documents are Notes made during research for the memoirs of P.H. Nitze, taken from documents dated ~~30X00XX07X~~ 25 Jan 67, 11 Sep 63, and 30 May 63, all TS. DOD asks us to ascertain if these notes may be used in preparation of the Nitze book which will be published in unclassified form. In view of the specialized subject matter of the notes, we would like to coordinate our response with the interested offices in the DI for a recommendation as to whether these notes may be released. If the judgment is that the notes cannot be released in their entirety, please indicate those portions which need to be excised to make them releasable. We shall require a look at the finished manuscript also. Please sign TS Green Sheets as well as regular mail receipt. Thanks. JB

1-301. Information may not be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- (a) military plans, weapons, or operations;
- (b) foreign government information;
- (c) intelligence activities, sources or methods;
- (d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States;
- (e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;
- (f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities; or
- (g) other categories of information which are related to national security and which require protection against unauthorized disclosure as determined by the President, by a person designated by the President pursuant to Section 1-201, or by an agency head. (See your Directorate's classification guide for the categories of information so designated by the DCI.)

Classification Guide Citations

We no longer are required to mark documents being returned to Presidential Libraries to conform with the provisions of the Executive order currently in force. We ask that you indicate the applicable classification guide provisions, however, in order to pinpoint the precise reasons why the classification of each document must be retained. This determination must be made by an Agency official who has been delegated either original or derivative classification authority.

A few of the DDO classification guide categories which presumably will often be applicable are listed below:

- D9a.2 - Foreign weapons (Review 20 years)
- D9b.1 - Foreign liaison information (Review 30 years)
- D9c.1 - Sources (Review 20 years)
- D9c.3 - Stations (Review 20 years)
- D9c.4 - Identities of CIA personnel, code designation, etc. (Review 20 years)
- D9c.5 -
- D9c.9 - Sigint (Review 20 years)
- D9c.12 - Official and non-official cover, when cover organization is identified (Review 20 years)
- D9c.13 -
- D9d.2 - Impair the conduct of U.S. foreign policies (Review 20 years)
- D9d.4 - Plans (Review 20 years)
- D9d.5 - Activities conducted abroad (Review 20 years)
- D9d.6 - Information revealing that the United States has obtained or seeks to obtain data concerning a foreign nation which could adversely affect U.S. foreign relations (Review 20 years)
